

The Italian branch of MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE, in line with the global environmental commitment of MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC CORPORATION and with the Environmental Policy of MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE, considers safeguarding the environment to be an integral and strategic part of its business, and regards the environmental compatibility of its sites and processes as an imperative. In order to meet this commitment, the company adheres to the following principles:

CONFORMITY

MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE - Italian branch undertakes to ensure its full conformity with the legislation in force governing environmental protection and the prevention of pollution; the company regards conformity with the environmental management requirements established in EN ISO 14001:2004 as one of its key objectives. The means of achieving and maintaining this objective include appropriate training activities aimed at improving organisational behaviours.

PREVENTION

MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE - Italian branch, dedicates substantial effort to minimising the environmental risk associated with the activities it undertakes. Furthermore, in order to prevent pollution and respond promptly to emergencies, and to safeguard its employees and the surrounding property and environment, the company adopts suitable procedures for managing environmental issues.

COMMUNICATION

MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE - Italian branch communicates its commitment to safeguarding the environment to its employees, suppliers, customers and stakeholders.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

MITSUBISHI ELECTRIC EUROPE - Italian branch undertakes to contribute to the development of more sustainable life-styles for present and future generations by identifying tangible, measurable objectives for improving its environmental performance and- providing the necessary resources for attaining them.

The Environmental Policy is disseminated within the company at all levels, with a view to raising the awareness of all personnel in such a way that each member of staff performs the duties assigned to him or her effectively and efficiently in accordance with the directives of the top management.